Up the Potomac.

No more charming ride from Washington can be imagined than that via the Baltimore and Onio up the valley of the Potomac, and no more lovely spot can be conceived to spead pecoration bay than at Harper's Ferry. Aside from the impressive historical association, the seenery is grand beyond description and the weather sure to be delightful. Byrne's Island, just opposite Harper's Ferry, is a delightful place, owned by the company, and fitted up exclusively for picnic and excursion parties, swings and flying horses for the children, and a large number of beats, all free to excursionists. Special express trains will leave Washington 8:39 a. m. Monday, May 31, and return during the evening. The round-trip rate of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children is exceedingly low and satisfactory, and certainly no pleasanter party will go at ywhere from Washington than that to Harper's Ferry.

FINE LACES

sioner Webb and Harbor Master Sutton have promised to aid them as far as they can. The condition of the river at present, owing to the improvements going on, makes it impossible to establish the baths along the river shore within easy reach of the city. Rock creek has been suggested, but the low temperature of the water there makes it undesirable, while the location most favored by the lattles is Babcock's lake. This would be easy of access and they say that a pretty floating bath house would be an improvement to the peace. They fear that the fact of the lake being used to propagate carp will be a reason for some objection to this invasion on the rights of fish culture, while the laddes say they consider the welfare of the buys at least as important as that of the fish. Four-Button Cutaway

Some of the clothing men and some of the "swell" tailors have been trying for two years to "run out" the 4-button Cutaway Coats, and to introduce a 3-button or a 2-button coat instead.

The tailors have also been trying to introduce coats that don't button so high, but both these efforts have been "dead failures."

Probably never in the history of the clothing trade has there been so popular to make people believe that it is more stylish with fewer buttons or cut lower.

We are just bringing out some of these coats in entirely new styles of fine English Cassimeres, light and dark colors, made up specially for fine trade and

Our patterns are as near perfect as they well can be, and the cut is the very latest. As to prices, we mean to be so much below the very few dealers who handle this class of goods as to show that we cannot be undersold.
